Thanos The Infinity Finale

Jim Starlin's Thanos: The Infinity Finale, if "finale" indeed it is, leaves the faithful with some rather weak writing from the master of the cosmic comic, especially if you compare this story with the work he did in the '70s with Warlock, Thanos, Gamora and Pip. I may be a wee bit prejudiced, but those comics, and in particular the Magus storyline, are some of the best stuff ever done by Starlin or anyone else in the industry.

Avengers: Infinity War depicts Thanos to be a genocidal fiend, but despite his popularity - and the MCU fans who claimed he had a point - the movie proves he is irredeemably evil. Throughout the planet-hopping superhero crossover, the Mad Titan tries again and again to justify his desire to wipe out half the universe's population, but his actions tell a far less altruistic story.
